Stand Up, Fight Back, and Win!

STICK IT TO THE MAN

How to Skirt the Law, Scam Your Enemies, and Screw Big, Fat, Stupid, Lazy Corporations...For Fun and Profit!

By Ronald Lewis

Have you ever called customer service only to spend two hours on hold and have a representative give you the brush off? Has your local barista ever handed you a cold, bitter cup of coffee that you couldn't return because the line behind you was trailing out the door? Has a truck driver ever gotten behind you on the highway, riding your bumper, making your commute a living hell? You're not helpless or alone. Here's something you can do about it. Read Stick it to the Man: How to Skirt the Law, Scam Your Enemies, and Screw Big, Fat, Stupid, Lazy Corporations...For Fun and Profit! Ronald Lewis will teach you how to level the playing field, instead of angrily chewing on your nails and ripping out your hair. His advice will help you:

- Make your credit card company fight for you
- Find easy ways to fight parking tickets
- Successfully eliminate spam
- Avoid costly mechanic fees
- Beat those expertly worded cell phone contracts
- Get free upgrades when you fly

In the end, you will be the one laughing your way to the bank as companies get a taste of their own medicine. Chapters include Insuring Yourself Against the Shady Practices of Insurance Companies, Escaping the Bondage of Contract Hell, and Demanding Better Service from Companies with Horrible Phone Support. Lewis's sarcastic, playful tone turns this manual for life in the twenty-first century into a sinfully guilty pleasure equipping you to reassess everyday situations. Read this book and learn to beat “the man,” whomever that may be: the local coffee shop, a boss, some crazy trucker, or a noisy neighbor.
